Camp Director: Coach Jerry Williams

After winning back-to-back State 1A Championships in 2010 and 2011, then finishing 3rd in 2012, Jerry Williams coached the 2012-13 Cascade Christian boys’ basketball team back to the playoffs, which was followed up by the 2013-14 team making an unexpected trip back to the State Tournament, where they finished in 7th place. Jerry has been the boys’ Varsity Basketball Coach at Cascade Christian High School for the past thirteen years, where he has won two Class 1A State Championships, ten league championships, two Olympian Conference titles, and eleven trips to the playoffs. Prior to that, he coached the girls’ Varsity Basketball team at CCHS. They finished 8th and 5th place in the State Tournament during his two year tenure. Jerry played at Puyallup High School from 1978-80, then on to the University of Puget Sound, where he graduated in 1984. From there, he traveled to Australia, where he played and coached for 3 years (1986-89) and set up the area’s first elementary and junior high school competitions. He has 28 years of coaching experience.
